Speech for Jan 2020 Bolivarian Forum Against Imperialism in Caracas

Just for reference I thought it a good idea to present here a little speech I prepared and delivered in the context of the Jan 2020 Bolivarian Forum against Imperialism which took place in Caracas this year.

It was prepared rather hastily and for verbal delivery mostly so I was not too concerned with grammar and spelling at the time. I tried to fix most of the typos here, for clarity, but for sure many survived so please so don't mind them and focus on the substance.

The speech

"We are fighting at the gates of Moscow, but we need to think about Berlin, for we will be there in the wink of an eye."

This famous words were uttered during the second WW2, by a great general from my nation, when fascists troops were besieging Leningrad, Stalingrad and were, yes, factually at the gates of Moscow.

And it seems that even then, not everybody understood that the words the general said were not meant as an encouragement. Not met for morale. Or not only at least.

They were aimed to stress the need to think, plan, and implement the future for beyond the moment when immediate military Victory is attained.

Because, failing that, evil might rise again, and then we will need to defeat it again.

Your Excellencies,

Dear friends, supporters of the Bolivarian Revolution, lovers of liberty and peace,

Other guests,

Good morning!

Я хочу попросить извинение у моих русских соотечественников из-за то, что я буду говорить по-английски, а не по-русски. Наши друзья отсюда лучше поймут меня так.

I am happy to stand here proudly before you, in Caracas, the capital of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

I would like to start by recommending this book. Viktor Frankl - A Man's Search for meaning. Excellent book. And also relatively short. I recommend to everyone to read it. It is written by a medical doctor, who survived Auschwitz, Kaufering and another Holocaust prison camp. But it is not about hardships there. Not only. It is rather short. I recommend to read it.

I am happy to see so many friendly faces among you today. I can definitely realize that I am mostly among friends.

I bring greetings and felicitations from my native land, from the territory of the former Socialist Republic of Romania.

My name is unimportant. We play so many roles in our lives, it would be impossible to enumerate them all anyway.

So I will get right to the point.

While I will touch upon a few historical and morale aspects, as a Game Theorist, I plan to mostly share my thoughts from an operational perspective.

That is to offer ideas and suggestions which will determine the way in which you act, the concrete strategies and steps you can take.

What I am about to say is not intended to be an inspirational speech.

There is no need to waste our time on this, since I see that in this room most of us clearly understand the way forward, up until the conclusion of our fight in Victory. And the need or benefits of concluding the fight up until Victory, are clear and require no further debate.

My friends,

I began with a quote from one of our generals, about the need to provide for and plan the future, beyond Victory Day.

By this, I meant to not only encourage you to think about the blessings of liberty... Existence without slavery, without the threat of slavery or dominance, a world where you are free to walk without fear any street on any city on Earth.. or on other celestial bodies, where humanity will settle.

A world where you are free to smile to whomever you like, where you are free to talk and express your feeling without fear of repression, judgment or killings.

What I meant with the opening quote is to stress out the need, for all of us to understand, that the evil we are defeating today...

The punishment and death of the pirates and bandits which have pained this world so much - I am referring to Rothchild , Murdoch, Bloomberg, Soros, Rockefeller, and the few other families.. those 10.000 people or so globally.. - will not end the theoretical possibility of such evil emerging again some day.

That the misery that is now upon us - and which will last only just a little while longer - is actually a gift from God... from Allah.. from Fate.. however you prefer calling it. It allows us to understand ourselves, to understand our nature, that of those besides us and furthermore to understand the theory of mafia and evil subterfuge much better.

We need to log and create the proper educational materials and programs for our youth, in order to better strengthen them in being able to recognize and combat early on any such forms of evilness which may arise in the future. Here or on Earth or anywhere else where our civilization will venture. Above all, we need to stress to them the need to be vigilant. And to understand their strength and weakness, and to know how to recognize evil - but, more importantly, how to recognize friends. How to choose persons smarter than them, who love their own ideals, or even simply love them, and whom they should trust, whom not, and to which extent each. And so on.

One can correctly say that "The Price of Freedom is Eternal Vigilance". Don't worry, this price does not require an 8-hour a day work schedule. Or 9 with lunch break - whatever. It does require though continuous usage of the brain - for the purpose of thinking. Understanding the ever changing present reality and ordaining the future appropriately. Effectively more or less only when needed - something like a few hours a year. But you don't get to know in advance when those hours happen. You need to be vigilant; always.

So, planning ahead for the state of affairs after the elimination of the current plague that torments this earth - the pirates and bandits which - due to the weakness and slowness of some of our ancestors - have plagued this Earth for about 3 centuries, is important. As fellow activists do not waste every opportunity to learn as much as it can be learned, make sure you spread to word... write about it for example, like I did, speak about it, and so on. I like to say that evil is Finite, while Good is infinite (bez kontza). So let's use this painful opportunity to learn everything that it can be useful to us from it, so that afterwards we will be able to... indeed... live in the paradise on earth (or in our galaxy more appropriately, for the moment). The key is vigilance, of course. And it applies also before the New Victory Day of our times as well. To our current fight.

So, of more immediate concern to us, is the appropriate conclusion of our fight, in Victory.

If possible, with as low a cost as safely possible... but, at any cost, Victory.

Here are my thoughts on what needs to be done.

Firstly I will speak about our Marketing strategy. A misnomer perhaps... I mean our public Communication Strategy.

I will now talk about how we communicate to others the current state of world affairs, how we describe ourselves and our goals and how we explain briefly but effectively to all the normal people out there - who are still victims of oppression and tyranny (some of whom don't even know it yet), what the reality is, and what they need to do.

As our Comandante once said... "Consensia i Consimiento son principal poher". Not all people move as quickly as some of us do intellectually, not all people have had exposure to the truth as we had, not all had the chance to understand why it is important to read the news from Russia Today, TeleSur, and others.

On this topic, I have one major idea. Victory.

From what I see in what is out there, there is too much an emphasis on the gruesome and unacceptable horrific crimes of this gang of pirates. Rothchild and the rest. It is time now to also communicate much more clearly to the people of the World... to the peoples of the World also.. why we chose to make these crimes known. The time has arrived to advance.., and explain that Rothchild and the rest are actually dead men walking. Them and their children also, just to be perfectly clear. Including infants, if any at the time. And yes, their mistress - all of them - also. Wives they do not have. This aspect was not clear to everyone, and it is time that it is made clear. Especially to the benefit of our friends - known and unknown - on the North American continent.

Among other things, I am a Game Theorist - a Strategist - this is a branch of Computer Science. There does not exist any scenario, there is no potential course of events which will allow these bandits, or their inner circle to survive. And they also know it. Just as the Nazis showed their most hideous side, the most amount of useless and pointless cruelty after their imminent defeat and death was apparent, so does this gang of bandits today. I mean the approx. 10.000 people forming inner circle of the aforementioned current rulers of western empire. And another about 100.000 or so, who are involved with their so called 'association of helpers' or whatever they call themselves - evil people as well as idiots, who have committed genocide and other major horrific crimes and who have entangled their fate with that of Rothchild and the rest, and who thus will die with them. Together with their families. And children. And most of these know it also - not all, as I mentioned some are idiots. That's like 0.0015% of the World Population. Of which they, in order to survive (and win - actually there is no distinction to them between surviving and winning, the two positions are actually the same), need to exterminate around 90-95%. And they openly admit this in their recruitment approaches. Not that they need to... They state it like 'they want to.. or will do...'. But in fact, the truth is that they need to.

Although I see that many of you here understand this obvious fact, perhaps it is worth clarifying. Some of you may choose to use my words in information materials.

For most of you here, being currently attacked by the Western Empire, it is clear that once Victory is achieved, these mafia heads will die. And yes, I repeat again just to be clear - their children also. The cries of 1 Billion lovers permit no other choice. Think fiancés, girlfriends, and other lovers. I remember that in Baghdad, before they hanged the wives of Daesh terrorists - they were allowed to plead for their lives for 5 minutes. And even then, they chose to continue lying... Must have been some very excruciating 5 minutes for those present.

So Yes... Indeed... Maybe it is important to point out how US forces slit the thoughts of fathers and lovers, of normal, usual families, just to instill terror and fear so that the girls can be made to accept to become sex slaves. Of course, that group of 7-8 martyrs which chose to be burned at the stake rather than become sex slaves... in Raqqa.. just a few weeks before Dash commanders were evacuated in defeat by US helicopters, speaks the story of our kind. Oh yeah... the western imperialists branded themselves as Dash in Syria and the Middle East. Just a name. Of No matter. So yeah, maybe it is important to tell these historical events to the world, to better understand us. Do you think those girls were not scared? When they were paraded in a cage through the street, knowing that they will be burned alive, in order to intimidate others? They were scared. We are also scared sometimes. Often times. Nevertheless, these brave martyrs, speak our story. Scared or not... In pain or not.. (And I will add... In Luxury or Not - which is indeed more dangerous..) we think, understand and do what is right. As simple as that. Our spirit is formidable. And it has prevailed. So sad that still so many people still need to die and suffer before this darkest hour comes to an end.

As I was saying, revealing these crimes... the best of fates which should await anyone, had these bandits been allowed to live - to achieve Victory, yes, is important. Last time, the plans they had revealed that for example, for my home nation of Russia, they planned to exterminate about 85% of the population. That means to kill. Not to put you in some comfortable place and enslave you in luxury or something. Just to be clear.

And, in fact, they did this on the territories they had under their control - especially Ukraine, Estonia, Letonia, Romania, and of course Poland.. and also they had started in France. And... these bandits killed the largest number of people, and in a huge rush... after it was absolutely clear that Nazi Germany was to be defeated certainly and that it was all just a matter of time. And to be clear, they were not chosen on any ethnical grounds, they were based on their goodness. The best of the people died there. The kind, the intelligent, the just, and so on. They were so baffled as they were being shot, not understanding why they are being murdered, since they posed no military risk whatsoever... and I mean entire populations.. infants, mothers, etc. Of course, as one of these hideous bandits explained himself at the Nuremberg Trials, before he was hanged, they had done it to change the demographic composition of the population... to prevent the theoretical possibility of their regime being challenged from inside, by the kind and truthful influence these people could have on others. And, of course, they had done it here also.. I mean the Pinochet regime genocide and forced sterilization.. they had begun to do it.. partially.. in Syria also.. before dying, and of course, they would have done it here in Venezuela also, if they had not been defeated.

I think the above is a sufficient for our purposes.

So, why would these elites then put on this hideous show? Why would they essentially resort now to these pointless cruelties? Why would they tell all of us, that we need to fight to the death, since otherwise a fate much worse awaits? To try to intimidate us into disarming and hastening that unwanted fate (with a glass of water first this time - or some orange juice). This is not the surety of a certain victor. It is the desperation and cruelty of a bandit, a rapist criminal who has been seen and cornered and know he is about to die. And just wants to harm us as much as it can on his way into the ground.

So allow me to clarify better the proof, the mathematical proof if you like, that Rothchild and the rest cannot survive.

The hideous crimes above are only a glimpse of what had awaited, had they managed to fool our civilian brothers, our fellow humans of lesser strength of mind and character.

Unfortunately, for all us us - and the reason for the prolongation of this darkest hour - is that those 10.000 people or so (I mean the inner gang) cannot live without power OVER others... without enslaving and humiliating others. Just like psychopaths: and most of them are. Dangerous ones. The Rockeffelers for example are world renowned for their charisma and courtesy. Combining that with illusive appearance of power, and you get the picture. So, these people cannot accept to live amongst us... to be just as free and to live just as comfortably as they do now, without attempting to enslave or torment us. They cannot do this. It is, sadly in their nature. It has been tried before. They were given plenty of opportunity to surrender conveniently. That means living the rest of their lives peacefully and securely in some residence - yes, including with sufficient slaves, and even having their children be educated besides us, part of the normal civilized society. In exchange for so many of our lives, and the lives of our fellow civilian humans, they were offered this. And even after they understood are losing.. even after understanding they have lost, they still scorned it. Oh, don't think they said simply "No"... they still somehow try to maintain and instigate this idea in some of us that, well.. maybe they "might". No. They did not. Do not. And will not. Even if we were to extend the offer again. They would only try to use it for further subterfuge and treachery.

Their very nature does not allow equality. Or peace... Or indifference if you like. Their perverted needs (and I refer to the moral term, not to sexual fetishes) make it imperative for them to control and have dominance over others. Furthermore, they understand that without their currently vanishing power to do harm, actually nobody would like them. They are not particularly intelligent (above average, but slightly so... less than the median of computer science graduates for example). They managed to fool and bribe some intelligent people to work for them, so this is where this hideous intelligence of theirs comes from. They are not particularly likable or interesting in themselves. And have lesser strength of will and character than most of us here. How long do you think they would resist the 8h/week torture? Or some of their own so called 'enhanced'-interrogation techniques? I doubt even a day. Maybe two. How long do you think they would put up with offering armed resistance in the cold and dirt outside, rather than betraying and surrendering? One would not even need to put their captured families on half-rations... like they did to the hollanders who refused to surrender during their initial Boher War by which they accumulated some of the resources allowing them to do so much harm later on.. Oh, and btw, do you think the families of those hollanders who chose to give up arms and surrender were eventually freed? To live in peace or something? No. Just to be unambiguous.

So to this group, of no particular likable or useful qualities - on the contrary -, the perpetuation of this suffering is the absolute only way for them to hope to achieve any kind of satisfaction in life. Thus, they will never be able to truly abandon their evil ways and join a civilized society. They will always, try.. times and again... to essentially take over the World, to enslave it.. ALL - as the only potential mean to achieving their relevance and relief from need. And while not particularly dangerous directly, they are devious. They have for so many centuries cultivated this ability to deal with human needs and weakness, to put some of our fellow civilians against another, and so on. Their threats and screens of chaff and smoke do not work on us... for us, these are truly mere specters of the gun. No more threatening than the vicious bark of a Chou-wa-woua. But they do manage to fool many of our fellow civilian friends, of our human brothers. And beginning to fail there also..., they are striving to change the demographic structure of humanity, so as to ensure a majority of mindless hideous monstrosities. The smart or useful people do not need to worry about death... a fate far worse had awaited them, if these bandits had been allowed to win. Just to evoke the helplessness of artificially inseminated pork, whose piglets are grown for meat without ever seeing natural daylight, or the case of that mother bear who managed to kill her own infant so that it would not be subjected to the same horrors she experienced - something to do with blood protein harvesting. And it would have been worse still... Ironically enough, just consider the fate of german spies landing in Britain - who were all captured. Only imagine it will be the free people of the world.. or easier.. your own loved ones or children that you would... beyond any ability to resist.. be compelled to lure them to the same fate worse than death as yours.

Finally, the current advancements in technology are approaching the breakthrough point. Soon our species - humans, will extend into space. And there we might encounter similar intelligent life - potentially far more advanced technology than ours - who might be in the situation that they had cleared this kind of evilness from their society long ago. And thus, could very easily become vulnerable to the practices and hideous methods of our current transient problems. And, by a similar Chinese-room argument, such bandits would risk spreading evil waay beyond the currently imaginable limits in space and time. We cannot allow such. For our own sake, and that of the future of our Universe, this cannot go. Не идёт. It ends here. These current so-called political elites, I mean Rothchild and the other pirates and bandits will not leave Earth. Their history ends here.

Ours will continue. Just to offer a bit of a preview of the things to come, I believe humanity will soon be able to technologically solve Aging, potentially drastically expanding the course of a human lifetime. There are organisms on earth - like some species of Medusas, Bats, Trees and others, who do not experience this phenomenon of aging naturally as we do. But regardless if it is 1000 years, or 50 years, more importantly than how long life, is HOW GOOD it is. For example, in the unlikely event we will be able to capture any of these criminals I was referring to alive before the New Victory Day, I am sure they will find their sought-after immortality (yes, they also have their scientists research this) a rather long wait.

There is an entire Universe out there (or maybe Multiverse if you like, things are not yet clear here) awaiting us. Who will you want to speak for Earth? The time for this darkest hour to end is drawing closer. I would personally estimate it at between 1-3 decades. Potentially much sooner. We will see. Definitely not more than 3 decades. Things will get sorted out much faster. Perhaps in the next 7-8 years. No need to rush excessively. Victory is the end goal.

For completing the mathematical proof, that this gang cannot survive, it would have been sufficient to recall the repeated warnings, the repeated pleas both publically and privately from our president, The President of The Russian Federation and of the Whole World, Vladimir Putin, concerning the dangerous of atomic warfare. Comandante Chavez also warned about the new kinds of weapons which can wipe out entire continents in one of his speeches. Even save that, the March 1 gift to our ladies, the announcement of the new Sarmat strategic lift vehicle, the Avangard hypersonic glider, the Poseidon long range torpedo (which is capable of annihilating 100 Km inland from the coast, along its entire stretch) and the others - even those merely publicly announced, would have sufficed to complete the proof. Especially with the potential actually working nuclear shield being developed, based on the S-500, combat lasers and other systems, which - unlike the anglo-saxon variant which does not work, ours actually MIGHT (and I stress MIGHT) soon defend effectively against a nuclear attack.

But the above proof, while simple to understand... is not Beautiful. There exists an embellished form. Which actually describes, from a Game-Theoretical point of view, what will occur in the coming years and decades.

Do not worry, the Earth will not be destroyed... Or, more precisely.. DO WORRY, AND ACT, DO YOUR PART, so that the Earth will not be destroyed. These western bandits actually push currently for such a scenario. They know they are dead. Out of pure spite they simply try to force us to go down with them... Even if they fully understand that we will if necessary.

I have met such people once in a while.. It is still baffling to me how they can hate us for our Beauty. How they can hate us for our Love, for the fact we would be capable of forgiving even their acts.. For our Kindness, for our Strength... (of character and not only).. For our very nature. They see our shining beauty... and I refer to the entirety of the normal humanity (so about 6.5 billion or so), not just to our kind, it includes our civilian friends.. they see what we can become, what we will become... and they hate us for it. I still don't fully get it why. This is not mere envy.. this is not about being a threat or not.. Maybe it is because they understand that their very nature cannot allow them to reach such potential.. That were we go, they cannot follow.

Regardless of this, since they understand they are doomed, they try to at least go down with a Boom. REMEMBER! They will still exploit any potential mistake... any weakness... any tiredness on our behalf.. to try to gain even more than just a Bang. If we were not careful.. if for example our civilian fellows and friends were left to their own.. these monsters could have still prevailed. Well, that is out of the question.

But we need to explain to our brotherin all this, and to have them understand that yes.., we will act to save humanity.. and Earth.. the rest of the creatures on Earth (cats, owls and dolphins are my favorites for example).. again. Yes, we will do this the second time, this time WITH THEM, WITH our civilian friends and well.. even with our not-so-friends, THIS TIME WITH THEM. Not only for them (also for them I mean), BUT WITH THEM. And not just as an educational experience or lesson for their benefit, but simply because this time their involvement is REQUIRED. I mean useful, positive, beneficial involvement.

Our president, the President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, has already declared that "Russian will not pay AGAIN the human cost of freeing Europe". I do not speak for him, nor for every one of my Russian friends (I mean the 140-200 million of them), but what was meant by this means that you... the people of Europe (those who were passive before - especially outside France and Spain, where progress and evolution is already inching forward), need to act WITH US. Not only with Russia. I mean with US. With the people who actually do something (not anything.. but actually what is needed) to free the World. You will not be abandoned. We will free the World the second time. But you guys (guys and girls), you folks OWE US ONE. Also, this time, like I said, you will also need to act yourselves... WISELY!!! NOT FUTALLY. I am referring to our civilian colleagues. Especially the approximately 15-20% of them who will approximately get this.. and have sufficient wisdom and data to act beneficially. The experiences of the past century have thought us that liberty actually needs to be earned, that it cannot be given as a gift. As I said, we will do it again, the second time - this time with them, with you, with the people of the World, not only for you.

Also let me be very clear, there will be no third time. This won't happen. This time is the last. Learn the lessons that need to be learned, think! (use your brain for thinking, not only perceiving), act!, then think some more, act! again and learn... and make sure you do not get yourselves (much less so many of us) into this situation again. So please pay attention, learn what needs to be learn, and really guys... and girls.. move faster! Think more, deeper and faster.. We do not mean to appear inhospitable or rude, but your presence... your current state of mind is deeply painful for us. We must ask you to adjust it faster. Thank you.

And we will assist in this regard. In keeping track of data, in building educational materials, and so on. We will lend a hand, where needed, where we can.. and where your mainstream-media-inflated ego allows it.

But let me be very clear, there will be NO THIRD TIME. This time is the last.

This bit above was about communication strategy... especially to our civilian friends.

Besides this major idea, we should also appropriately adjust our materials and messages to account for the differences in level of lucidity throughout the peoples of the globe. Don't worry; not everybody who is currently in the dark about world affairs is against us. I myself, when very young actually considered one of those devils - Soros I think, to be somewhat admirable. So again, we need to adjust our messages appropriately and account for these different levels of awareness. This strategy, nevertheless, must be within our current one of ALWAYS SAYING THE TRUTH.

Western hegemony try to trick us into bending it, or hiding it. Sometimes try to lure us into various sorts of que-pro-quo, so as for our weakness or historical mistakes not to become public. This MUST NOT HAPPEN. We MUST CONTINUE TO ALWAYS KEEP SAYING THE TRUTH. We humans know our history, even when we are ashamed of it. What some of our civilian friends do not seem to understand is that we - the fighters, are also human. We go to the toilet like everyone, we want to eat or have sex - and sometimes we actually do .. just like everyone. Sometimes we make mistakes... myself for example, have been fooled, not once, but twice by apparent 'sympathizers' and 'friends' who actually were western security services.

So we are not super-human. And while we do possess some qualities in greater abundance than some of the others, intelligence especially but not only, we are not infallible. Nevertheless, we learn from our experiences.. from all of them.. and from those of the others.. and also from our own theoretical scenarios.. And we maintain our Identity. We remain who we are, no matter what.

And no amount of suffering, of fear (we also experience fear), or worse - of comfort and luxury, none of these will sway us from our path. We are and will continue to be who we are.. and to act accordingly. Pururea si Aievea (this means everywhere in time, and everywhere in space).

Thirdly, we need to stress out to people more clearly what they should do. Times and again, I have seen people on the path to lucidity, simply being swiped away by a different discourse (more adjusted to their still incorrect mental model) by the current western gang. We need to explain more clearly to them how to recognize potential friends first of all.

Fourthly, we need to clearly state to people the fact that - whether they want it or not - they are involved effectively in this war. There is no neutrality. Unfortunately. The enemy allows for none - although many will be lied to into believing that their inactions will be rewarded with the recognition of neutrality. You can fight and lose, yes.. But if you don't fight, you lose for sure. I have briefly explained above the gruesome prospect of Vae Victis. Of more than 25 million Soviet deaths in WW2, only 1-2 million were military. You do the maths.

And finally, as gruesome as the prospect of defeat is - also impossible currently as I explained -, remember that we are not fighting only to avoid that. The bliss of a peaceful, warm, secure and loving existence with family and children - while it may seem like paradise to the violence, oppression and wars currently going on, IS NOTHING compared to what awaits us. NOTHING compared even with the lives of the current western hegemony - with their hectare long villas and palaces and their sex slaves (yes, we must not fear the word sex... it has beneficial side effects also - children and all, not to mention love in some cases). I did mention the current advances in technology and others. Just know that by comparison, the future which awaits us after this darkest hour will seem unfathomably beautiful - even compared to the stone-age technology existence of a peaceful and secure community.

That is what we are fighting for. Not to punish these pirates and bandits... we will do that also if we can (I mean besides their deaths).. But to no longer delay our evolution into the next stage of our existence as a species... Not a split of the human species like the current bandits would have (I mean by using technology, implants, and so on - both beneficially and negatively), but as a Transfiguration into our true nature. Remember that. We are fighting for Paradise not for revenge.

With this I have completed the bit about communication strategy.. and I think that the information above is actually useful for many of us as well... I mean for the people like me who and you who are already actively involved in shaping the World - armed with intelligence, words, and of course, some of you weapons. Just remember that fighting with weapons (like guns and missiles and such) is very much like fighting with words.. Easier actually in some cases. And the most dangers - I mean in the present state of the military situation World Wide - are on the front of the War of Words, of Lucidity, of Allegiance and of Choices of Morality. I mean with regard to our generals and leaders - as whether to betray or not our cause; and reciprocally - whom of our soon to be former enemies will join our cause, in whichever capacity they can and choose.

So, now moving into the second part of my intervention: Don't worry - it will be shorter, and there are three parts in total only.

The main threat to our goals - is not only on the battle front - although of course that is crucial yes (remember that one reason the word is a powerful weapon because it eventually leads to someone using a physical weapon). But on the battlefield - on the front I mean, the situation while still difficult is stabilizing.

The most dangerous threats come from within.

The western bandits try to lure some of our Generals, our Scientists, our Engineers, our Soldiers, into a life of supposed comfort and ease... Not only their bellies may be full and their spirits empty should they be too weak to resist this kind of attack, but also.. in the hypothetical (currently impossible) eventually that they were to accept such deals.. They would have quickly found out after the war that a hegemon does not want partners.. does not want independent people.. I explained clearly above that one of the reasons the current western elite of pirates and bandits are dead, is because they cannot allow for coexistence... for independence.. even in the slightest. Like the President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin once said, "No matter what you do on... on the wedding night you still get screwed". So no matter how good a deal you may have gotten for such a hideous marriage, on the wedding night you still get screwed. There is no escaping that.

I mean this mainly for my fellow scientists and engineers - just remember how devastatingly painful Albert Einstein and some of the others on the Manhattan project regretted having given the atomic bomb to this gang of criminals. Well... it was too later afterwards. Again, an example of how someone so genial can be also so stupid. For his own sake I mean.. for his own objectives and values in life.. I have seen this once in a while with some of my fellow scientists. I cannot understand how they can be so distracted away from using their intelligence into rising the veil of lies imposed on them and seeing the both sweet and bitter reality lucidly. And acting accordingly.

And this also applies to some military generals, technicians, soldiers and leaders, who might be contemplating such a deed of betrayal. I am specifically referring to our Iran colleagues, who now, after the assassination of our dear and beloved friend Soleimani, face some of the hardest challenges of our times. Just remember that you can only capitulate once. And as Gadaffi and some others learned by biting the dust, it may not turn out the way you might have believed, or have forced yourself into believing.

Really, guys.. there is a saying in poker: "When a man offers you to split the pot at showdown, just say No and take it all". Don't mess up the End Game. It is painful and yes.. not a drop inadequately named "The Darkest Hour". But Victory is near.. I said.. like 2-3 decades from now I see it at most. And if it is any comfort, know that as painful as it is know... if you give away in these last few meters, it will be much, much! more painful afterwards. Remember what I said about technological advancements in biology, pertaining to human lifespan. Don't find yourself in Einstein's shoes.

More so... more importantly... To some of the people currently fighting against us. And to us, to you hear as well. Remember that just the 10-100.000 people elite and some of their evil or extremely idiotic supporters are doomed. They would have you believe that you are also doomed. Like the Nazis wanted to ensure some sort of 'guiltless point of no return' threshold by requiring people to personally shoot civilians - I mean besides those of a sufficiently evil nature (more so than the aforementioned bandits) would have done so gladly anyway. So just like the Nazis, the current western hegeoms are trying to get you to dirty your hands, by committing atrocities and genocide or worse - I mean the assassination of leaders like Soleimani or Chavez, so that somehow you feel - FALSELY FEEL that somehow your fate is intertwined with theirs. That beyond that point you somehow had no choice than to support them.. because otherwise, if they.. if these pirates, Rothchild and the rest were to loose, we, the normal people would execute you anyway for your crimes against us (even if you were somewhat forced).

To this I answer clearly. We have the experience of reconciliation. There is the Reconciliation Center at Latakia which has already bought back so many moral people back, and has also helped hasten the war operations there and reduce victims. Don't worry... you will not need to be colleagues with some mindless evil gang brute who was found out and used by these hegemony. As with the Reconciliation Center at Latakia, this process will not apply to terrorists. So don't become one... just do the best you can in this regard (I mean by that everything you can... all that is in your power... including considering potential weakness of character like fear or compulsive addiction to sweets or the like).

Also, to my fellow friends, activists and the like.. Let us remember that many of those fighting against us.. Are still our brothers... Our sisters... Those of use of a weaker mind and body... less gifted with intelligence and lucidity.. or the ability to strengthen ones character than us. Let us make today, a Day of the Dove for them. They have mistaken before us... and they will need to apologize for that.. I mean not with words, but with their actions. And yes, they need to take this bitter pill, since even though intelligence and to some extent strength may be gifts of Nature, and not for them to decide, their foolishness has harmed us all.

And once that is done with, let us finish this fight, live the New Victory Day together, and allow for the healing process - of those of us still alive at that moment I mean, to begin. It will take a few years more... maybe a decade. Let the burying of our loved ones to have not been in vain. Let's get this Darkest Hour over with.

And again, no, this will not apply to terrorists, people who join the Mafia by preference, evil brutes, psychological manipulators, active psychopaths and the like. Their fates are also sealed. Don't worry. Just act wisely about this. I will not say more. Again, remember the experience of the Reconciliation Center at Latakia.

And also Stalin's gamble at the end of WW2... The German people for example seem to have gotten it... Better at least than most of my native Romanians, than Poles and so on. Indeed, our territories and peoples were deeper hurt by the demographic purges by the Nazis seeking to eliminate the good people.

Nevertheless, the key idea of this second part relates to actually seeing who the enemy is - and collecting the strength, both on our side, and on the side of our mistaken brothers, to reconcile... where adequate and possible of course. But this part is crucial to saving our planet.. to having the New Victory Day the way we want it. Remember that about 80% or so of the western military-industrial apparatus (I mean soldiers and petty officers, engineers, some of the scientists, some of the doctors, most of the public administration and so on) are actually rooting for us. They are acting against their own values and convictions, for fear or weakness... And here I am mostly referring to weakness against the temptation of temporary luxury... including sex slaves yes, some times. This is far more dangerous than weakness against direct violence or threat of starvation.

Now, I have said sex slavery a few times. I need to clarify to all of us.. our generals especially that this is not the only way.. and definitely not an appropriate way to get this kind of need satisfied. Regardless of what fetishes you might have. Especially from between the west bank of the Dnper river and the Pacific Ocean, in the Northern Hemisphere, the western hegemony - through the ideas of their nazi-like scientists of psychology of course - have succeeded more than in other places to disturb, jam and compromise in many cases normal relations between men and women, between the sexes. I will not elaborate on this now.. but we also need not to hide such topics under the rug.. with metoo or youtoo or whatever operations out-there, no doubt many of our peaceful, shy scientists and engineers truly believe the lie that only through banditry and violence normal relations are possible. This is not the case. Just take my word for it for now. When I will have time, in another context I will elaborate further. Or read my blog if you want.. it is in Romanian though.

This concludes the second part.

Thank you so much for your warm attention. This last bit will be very short.

I want to point out that I do not speak for any state government. I mentioned our friends from Iran, the President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, Comandante Chavez and Maduro, and some others. These World Leaders and others cannot possibly have said the things I did at this time. They are bound by the norms and strategies resulting from their formal positions, which occur in the context of the constitution of their states, and so on. Ultimately, they need to address a wider audience, of people of varying degrees of lucidity and with different mental models.

I, on the other hand, do not suffer from suffer from such limitations. I can speak freely and without reserve. For example it would not be appropriate for a World Leader - essentially in this context to echo the words of Mao calling for the world not to fear nuclear war since at least 200 million Chinese would survive it and live freely afterwards. Nor could any World Leader say that "In the past we were not willing to allow the sacrifice of a single city to nuclear war. And look where that has gotten us." Just to be clear, remember that we need to PREVENT a NUCLEAR WAR FROM OCCURRING... if possible. We are winning on all fronts conventionally. So we need to take the nuclear button away from the walking dead bodies.. I mean Rothchild and the rest.. the western bandits.. so that they cannot trigger one just of spite... to prevent us from attaining the fully beauty of our potential.

But still, like another saying in poker goes... "In order to live, you must be prepared to die." I am sorry, this is not a game.. not a joke.. I mean this is not a play or such in my view.. I do treat this with the full responsibility and importance that it is due. I do not simply throw out words without thinking or caring, or anything like that.

Now, in the closing statement, allow me perhaps a bit of an emotional moment.

I wish to thank you all here for what you have already done for this World. I mean the people of Venezuela, President Maduro, Comandante Chavez, and, of course all the brave people who initiated and lead the "Movimiento Quinta Republica" to victory here. It is not a coincidence that Western Coupes still vaguely succeed around the region - I mean Ecuador, Bolivia, Argentina (in fact we got Argentina back, and we will do the rest also). That such coupes somehow still succeed for the moment around the region, but not here. Not in Venezuela. This is because the people here learned to fight evil in general. To fight manipulation and to think clearly. And to pass this onto their youth. They understood the meaning of the words "Preparemos Los Todos Por La Palaia Che No Nimismo Comiensa", even before they were said. This is what I am talking about with preparing for after Berlin. About being Vigilant and such.

And on this point, I would like to ask my esteemed colleagues here to pick it up and distribute this, along the appropriate channels to the peoples of the World. This has worked before. By being here today before you is thanks - in part - the great work of Calle y Media Collective - and their great documentary Venezuela Bolivariana. In some factual sense, everything I will have achieved - myself, and even as a result of influencing you - is partly due to them. So I would like to thank them for that, to thank our Comandante Chavez and also to thank you here for your active struggle.

I had so much more I wished to have told you. About the Game-Theoretical analysis of the Orthodox tale of feeding one another with long spoons - and how this needs to be applied in our current war effort. And so much more. But I will conclude here now. The most important things I have covered.

Allow me to end with two of my favorite quotes:

"Esta poher che vo aven plan-tiamos, amino che perdeves. Esta puher du tedes!"

Veceremos!

And also stress out to them that they do need to act this time. That yes, we will save the world - humanity as well, for the second time. But that this time we will do it with their involvement - not only as an educational benefit for them, but because, due to their failings and the failings of their parents, their active involvement is required this time. That liberty actually needs to be earned, that it cannot be given as a gift - as the experiences of the past century have clearly demonstrated. As I said, we will do it again, the second time - this time with them, with the people of the World, not only for them (also). And that there will be no third time. This won't happen. It is the second and last time.

The President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, has already stated priory that the Russian Federation will not pay the human cost of liberating Europe again. The enemy thought to picture this to the peoples of Europe as if the Russian Federation will have abandoned them. Firstly, in the Russian Federation, we also have families. We have loved ones. Girlfriends, wives, husbands and children. While the Federation did already ASSIST the struggle of the people in the Syrian Arab Republic, as well as here, in the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, the message of our President - I will clarify it now - is that, "hey, folks! You need to act yourself now! This will not be 1945 all over again. This time you also need to move your asses essentially". And no, not only through street protests or disorganized, fruitless acts of armed resistance. I will explain know in some detail what needs to be done.

The cynical and grotesque way in which they assassinated our beloved Comandante Chavez, the perfid assassination of another of our friends, General Soleimani, the systematic genocide against the people of Venezuela, of Latin America, of Syria, of Iraq, of Eastern Europe and others (Palestine of course) - as grotesque and unpalatably gruesome as they are, are, yes, strangely enough insufficiently known by the people living with the occupied lands.

You may be appalled by the blatant so called courage - of openly assassinating diplomats and officials of foreign states. Of openly trafficking human sex slaves, and work slaves, via so called proxies - Daesh, you name it. Of openly imprisoning innocent people, without charge, without guilt, for revealing the truth. I mean Assange, Manning, and many others. This is not new. The precedent of Vanunu is well established.

They try to make it look like the courage of a certain victor. But this is not courage - it is, in fact the desperation of a dead man walking.

One more thing. One of the biggest hypocrisies I have ever noticed to be so prevalent in the West is the idea that world leaders - that state leaders - somehow we need to be some sort of selfless gods (well, some of us - of world leaders I meant, sorry, may seem like that sometimes). But that does not mean that they need to somehow make some oath of poverty or something. These hegemons would like you to pay your heros and leaders as little as possible of course. So that bribing them will be easier... since they are fighting both the war and poverty at the same time for example - in a metaphorical manner of speaking.

The only puppets who claim or agree to this are actors working for Rothchild and the rest, as their spokespersons. And, don't worry, they do get paid. And I mean in flesh, not in dollars. For us, of course not to exploit or steal. But hey! You are not entitled to us fighting for your liberties. You saw were our absence and your lack of actions and more importantly of though before has led you. Security costs - a lot! And as Napoleon said, "a people who does not want to feed their own army - will soon feed the army of the enemy". Don't worry. In principal you have nothing to pay with anyway. It's ok. And we require no payment in that fashion either. If we were tyrants we could have taken everything by force anyhow - just like the actual enemy. But we did not. And we do not. And we will not. But this time, the second time, is the last time we bail you out. And again, this time with you, not only for you. Just know that there will not be a third time.
